Simply type the information below, the text will wrap as you type. It is NOT necessary to try to put into paragraphs.

Ellis began his career in water operations 1982. He earned his Class 1 certifications while employed by East Columbia Water and immediately began working on his Class twos. Ellis worked diligently to keep Columbia Heights in compliance with the best possible water he could serve to his customers. Ellis was instrumental in the upgrades and growth to Columbia Heights. Last year Ellis had a heart attack while on the job. Ellis was back at work as soon as possible and probably sooner than he should have. Ellis plans on retiring in the near future.
